GLOBAL QUALIFICATIONS

SQA Approved Centre
Scottish Qualifications Authority

LCCI GQ's Hospitality Programme Quality Assured by SQA
Diploma in Hospitality Management
End Term Examination (Sample A)

Date:		Course Name:	Food Production & Patisserie I & II
Duration:	2 ½ Hours	Course Code:	HH3W 04 / HH44 04
Total Marks:	80	Pass Marks:	32

Instructions to the Students

1. Students are required to answer all the questions in their own words as far as possible. Any copying and sharing are strictly prohibited and will result in disqualification.
2. On the answer booklet, clearly identify the question number you are attempting to answer. Use blue or black ink.
3. Before leaving the examination room, you must return this question paper along with your answer booklet to the Invigilator. If you do not, you may lose all the marks for this paper.

Group A

Attempt all the questions

1. Write true (T) and false (F) in the appropriate question. 5 x 1 marks = 10 Marks
   (FP I: Units 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 | FP II: Units 1, 2, 3, 4)
   a. The food production department evolved from ancient communal kitchens.
   b. HACCP stands for Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points.
   c. Crustaceans have an exoskeleton and include shrimp and lobster.
   d. A boning knife is used for removing bones from meat and fish.
   e. The Head Pastry Chef oversees the entire pastry section.
   f. Sautéing uses a small amount of fat over medium to high heat.
   g. White stock is made from roasted bones.
   h. Proteins provide 4 kilocalories per gram.
   i. Blind baking means pre-baking a pie shell without filling.
   j. Al dente means cooking pasta until it is firm to the bite.

2. Select the correct answer. 5 x 3 marks = 15 Marks
   (FP I: Units 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 | FP II: Units 1, 2, 3, 4)
   a. Which chef formalised the brigade system of kitchen organisation?
      - Julia Child
      - Ferran Adrià
      - Marie-Antoine Carême
      - Escoffier
   b. The second principle of HACCP is to:
      - Conduct hazard analysis
      - Determine CCPs
      - Establish critical limits

- Monitor procedures

c. Finfish are categorised into:
   - Saltwater only
   - Freshwater only
   - Freshwater and saltwater
   - Shellfish

d. The temperature for deep-frying is typically:
   - 100-120°C
   - 125-150°C
   - 175-190°C
   - 200-220°C

e. Fats provide how many calories per gram?
   - 4 kcal
   - 7 kcal
   - 9 kcal
   - 12 kcal

Group B

Short questions

1. Attempt any FIVE questions with examples. 5 x 5 marks = 25 Marks
   a. List and explain the modern kitchen brigade hierarchy with five key positions. (FP I - Unit 1: Introduction)
   b. What are Critical Control Points (CCPs) in HACCP? Why are they important? (FP I - Unit 2: Basic Hygiene and HACCP)
   c. Describe five types of food commodities with their culinary uses. (FP I - Unit 3: Food Commodities)
   d. Explain the difference between large and small kitchen equipment with examples. (FP I - Unit 4: Cooking Equipment)
   e. What are the key considerations when using water as a nutrient? (FP II - Unit 3: Elementary Nutrition)
   f. Describe the tools and equipment used in patisserie work. (FP I - Unit 5 & FP II - Unit 4: Patisserie)

Group C

Long questions

1. Answer any TWO questions with explanation. 2 x 15 marks = 30 Marks
   a. Explain the objectives and purpose of cooking. How does cooking enhance flavour, improve texture, and ensure food safety? (FP II - Unit 1: Introduction to Cooking)
   b. What are stocks? Explain the four main types of stocks with their ingredients, uses, and cuisine examples. (FP II - Unit 2: Foundation of Continental Cookery)
   c. What are the basic methods and techniques of pastry and bakery? Explain at least four methods with product examples. (FP I - Unit 5 & FP II - Unit 4: Patisserie)

*Best of Luck****